

Name : _____

Topic: Language – Subject and Predicate

Directions: Read each sentence. Underline the subject and encircle the predicate.

1. Valentine's Day is on February 14th.
2. My ball is big and colorful.
3. Andrew and I are going to Jacob's birthday party on Saturday.
4. My favorite dessert is apple pie.
5. My aunt will pick me up this afternoon.
6. That yellow dress will look very nice on you.
7. We went camping near Lake Miso.
8. The teachers sang their farewell song.
9. Grandma Jane brings brings me to school every morning.
10. The lawn mower is used to cut the grass.

Directions: Put a ✓ if the underlined word/s is/are a complete subject or predicate. Put a X if the underlined word/s is/are not the complete subject or predicate.

- _____ 1. A declarative sentence is a sentence that states something.
- _____ 2. I would like to go to the Chocolate Hills in Bohol.
- _____ 3. The first student who says "Present" will get a prize.
- _____ 4. Ninoy wrote a letter to his daughter.
- _____ 5. The farmers will harvest all the mangoes today.
- _____ 6. The walls of the bathroom needs to be cleaned.
- _____ 7. Ben delivered eight boxes of pizza to the faculty room.
- _____ 8. April and May are the summer months in the Philippines.
- _____ 9. Gina, Sandra and Melissa must go to the principal's office tomorrow morning.
- _____ 10. The gymnasium is where we play basketball.