

Name : _____

Topic: Language – Subject and Predicate

Directions: Match the subject in column A with the most appropriate predicate in column B to form a complete sentence.

- | | |
|-----------------------------|---|
| _____ 1. The busy squirrel | A. takes a rest after galloping |
| _____ 2. The brown kangaroo | B. have antlers as sharp as a knife |
| _____ 3. The tired horse | C. stores nuts in tree trunks |
| _____ 4. The monkeys | D. can grip the branches with their tails |
| _____ 5. The large moose | E. has a bigger back leg for jumping |

Directions: Write a complete sentence by using the given phrase as a subject or predicate.

Example: sheds hair in the winter (use as a predicate)
Dogs usually sheds hair in the winter.

1) hops around in the meadow (use as a predicate)

2) the big elephant (use a subject)

3) licks its paws and sleeps the whole day (use as a predicate)

4) flies up to the cliff to feed its young (use as a predicate)

5) the fat pig
