At 5'oclock in the afternoon, Mrs. Larkin went up to _____ son's room. _____ was surprised to see clothes, books and toys were all around the room. "Tommy, come up to _____ room now!," Mrs. Larkin shouted. Tommy was in the living room watching television. When _____ mother called, _____ immediately turned the television off and went up to his room.

Mrs. Larkin asked, "Why is _____ room such a mess, Tommy?" . "I was in a hurry this morning and had no time to clean _____," Tommy replied. "Next time, _____ should pack away your things right after you use them so that the mess won't build up like this. Come and help _____ clean the room," said Mrs. Larkin.

Mrs. Larkin picked up a book that was not familiar to _____. "Is this book _____, Tommy?," _____ asked. Tommy got the book and said, "No, mother. The book belongs to the Branson family next door. It is _____."

Mrs. Larkin then picked up a clock. "How about this one?, " she asked. Tommy looked at what _____ was holding and said, "Yes, Dad bought that clock for the family. It is _____. I think _____ is broken though."

"How about this bag?," Mrs. Larkin asked. "Yes, that bag is _____," was Tommy's reply. "The bag is dirty. I am going to clean _____. You finish up here on your own. Don't forget to put _____ dirty clothes in the hamper," his mother said as she walked out of the room with the clock and the bag.

"Yes, mom, I'll put _____ in the hamper. Thanks for helping me," Tommy said. When he finished, Tommy stood by the door and smiled. _____ felt great about having a clean room.
