

Name : _____

Topic: Language – Demonstrative and Indefinite Pronouns

DIRECTIONS: Circle all the demonstrative pronouns and underline the indefinite pronouns.

both	those	a few	mine	she	anyone somebody	all	theirs	these	nobody
this	many	hers	I	everyone
everybody	that	ours	yours	each

DIRECTIONS: Write the correct demonstrative pronoun in each sentence.

1. _____ birds are flying so high.
2. Aunt Lucinda says that if you wear _____ amulet, you will be protected from evil spirits.
3. _____ cut on your forehead is bleeding profusely.
4. I have to carry _____ books with me at all times.

DIRECTIONS: Circle the correct indefinite pronoun in each sentence.

1. Only (much , a few) of us received department awards at the assembly this morning.
2. (Everyone , Anyone) should put an effort into making our village park clean and beautiful.
3. (Each , Anybody) could have won the game because it was a fair play.
4. Michael promised Ella that her secret is safe because he told (someone , nobody).
5. (Everybody , Anyone) blocked the street during the parade.
6. I can't remember his name but I'm sure I handed the key to (anybody , someone).
7. (Each , All) are welcome to watch the rock concert tonight.
8. I'm so glad that (a few , many) came to help out pack food baskets for the poor.
9. Allan jumped to his feet when (somebody , anyone) knocked at his door.
10. (Someone , All) is going to get a big surprise tonight!