

Name : _____

Topic: Math –Model method – 2-Step Word Problems – Addition / Subtraction

Direction : Read the problem. Draw a model to represent the problem. Show your solution and label your answer.

1. There were 143 students in the auditorium. Later, 37 students entered the auditorium?

a) How many students were there in the auditorium in the end?

Model:

Solution:

Answer:

b) If in the end, 86 students in the auditorium were girls, how many boys were there?

Model:

Solution:

Answer:

2. Patrick has a collection of toy cars. He gave his classmate 16 cars. He gave his playmate 14 cars. Now Patrick has 57 cars. How many cars did he have at first?