

Name: _____

Topic: Math – Creating Problems involving Addition

Contributor: abcd

Directions: Fill in the problems using the data in the box. Answers cannot be repeated.

13 grapes	54 boats	Php 452	10 grapes	99 pages	17 notes	Php 263
9 colors	25 teachers	28 notes	291 students	68 cars	143 pages	18 colors

Ex)

John ate 13 grapes yesterday and he ate 10 grapes today. How many grapes did he eat?

1)

Vehicle Dealership A sold _____ while Vehicle Dealership B sold _____. How many vehicles were sold?

2)

Oliver read _____ of his book this morning while he read _____ this afternoon. How many pages did he read?

3)

Maligaya school has _____ to teach its _____. How many people are in Maligaya school?

4)

Rene bought a jacket worth _____ and a pair of pants worth _____. How much did he pay to buy those things?

5)

Jake used _____ to paint his art project while Andrew used _____ to paint his art project. How many colors were used to paint both art projects?

6)

Jacky can play _____ on her piano while Lex can play _____ on his guitar. How many notes can they both play?