

Name : _____

Topic: Science – How are animals grouped

Directions: Write True if the sentence is correct and False if it is not.

- _____ 1. Animals are classified into different groups based on their sound.
- _____ 2. Insects are one group of animals.
- _____ 3. Any animal that has feathers, a beak, two wings and two legs belong to the insect group.
- _____ 4. A duck-billed platypus lays eggs and so it belongs to the group of birds.
- _____ 5. Only mammals produce milk to feed their young.
- _____ 6. The group of fish forms the second largest group of animals.
- _____ 7. All birds lay the same size of eggs.
- _____ 8. Penguins live in water so they belong to the group of fish.
- _____ 9. There are insects that fly and there are insects that crawl.
- _____ 10. The animal group that form the largest are the mammals.

Directions: Look at the animals listed in the box. Classify each animal and write it in the proper column.

flatfish	seagull	butterfly fish	cat	seahorse
peacock	dragonfly	hen	molly
human	housefly	penguin	ant	lion
praying mantis		silverfish	owl	tilapia

MAMMAL	FISH	BIRD	INSECT